JA Hires New Benefits Advisor, Carrie Divens

Bedford, IN (March 17, 2020) – JA Benefits, one of Indiana’s leading employee benefit broker-consulting firms, is excited to announce the addition of a new team member, Carrie Divens, who joins the JA as a Benefits Advisor.

“I look forward to joining the JA Magic,” said Divens. “I’m excited to use my past experience and current knowledge to help make a difference for our clients.”

Divens joins the team at JA with over 20 years of experience in the employee consulting industry. Her previous roles include Director of Marketing for a solutions organization, Director of Market Analysis at a benefits company, and most recently, Divens was the Director of Consumer Engagement and Marketing at another benefits company. Along with her experience, Divens will utilize her passion to partner with employers in a consultative way to ensure to make the best decisions to manage their entire healthcare dollar.

Divens graduated from Butler University’s College of Business with a bachelor’s degree in Marketing. While at Butler, she joined Alpha Chi Omega sorority and served as their President. In the most recent years, Divens has had the opportunity to serve as Secretary on the Butler University Alpha Chi Omega Sorority House Corporation Board.

Divens and her husband, Mitch, celebrated their 20-year anniversary this past year and have three kids. Carrie and Mitch are extremely proud of their three children and enjoy lots of fun with their active family.
